7 Custom Bicycle Renewal

Rosebud Bicycle Builds provides a passionate and individualized approach to you and your bicycle that transcends the scope of a traditional bike shop's capabilities. You are bidding on our 20-hour "Renewal" program.

This process deconstructs every component down to its "cellular level" and reconstructs the pieces to a synchronized and free-flowing whole. Parts are ultrasonically cleaned, bolt threads chased, gouges in derailleur cages, cogs, chainrings and seatposts are machined and polished then reassembled to a new level of operation and performance. Wheels are brought into optimum tension and hub bearings are polished for the smoothest spin imaginable.

After your bicycle's renewal is completed, Chris will analyze your riding position with an initial stationary session, followed by the "revolutionary technique" of going for a ride together to fine-tune your particular style and pedaling nuances.

Auction item does not include any parts that may need to be replaced.

9 Commemorative Tree and Planting Celebration

Here's a unique opportunity to green your community and commemorate a special person, milestone or event. Nancy MacKerrow, mother of past Bicycle Alliance Executive Director and nationally recognized bike advocate Susie Stephens, will contribute up to $300 to acquire a commemorative tree for you. She will work with you to find a suitable location for planting it and, if her schedule permits, she will attend your planting celebration. You may want to plant this tree to honor a friend or family member, to celebrate a birthday or anniversary, or to commemorate a special event. The choice is yours. Nancy has chosen to honor Susie's memory by planting trees and your commemorative tree will be recognized as part of the Susie forest.

116 One Adult Bike Repair Class

One full enrolment to an Adult Bike Repair Class at Bike Works. Our programs for adults offer the same fun, friendly, and accessible high-quality bike education that students who are under 18 get in our Youth Programs.

Our most popular classes:

A.B.C - ADULT BASICS CLASS
A.B.C. teaches just that, the ABC's of bike repair. In this class we will focus on the basics, in a format specially designed for beginners. A.B.C. is an opportunity to learn the most fundamental concepts of bicycle repair in a safe and nonjudgmental environment.

D.E.F. – DEVELOPING EXCELLENT FIXING-SKILLS

D.E.F. class takes the foundational knowledge you already possess as an intermediate bicycle mechanic and builds on it, taking you further than you thought you could go. The class focuses on current bicycle technology and advanced repair techniques. D.E.F. is considered a class for those with basic level of experience and comfort with bike repair, but it is still a safe and fun environment designed to help all students to grow as mechanics.

240 2009 Hercules Roadster by TI India

This bicycle was purchased new in India in 2009. It is the modern continuation of the classic British roadster. It has 28 inch wheels with rod brakes. The cotted crank was replaced with a modern unit that actually works, and the saddle and post were replaced with a beautiful sprung Brooks.

Try counting the number of spokes without losing interest.

Ring that bell if you dare; try not to alarm those standing nearby.

Picture yourself cruising respectfully upright for a cup of coffee and locking this bike with the integrated wheel lock. Check out those frame angles and fork rake; let's just say this bike is not twitchy.

245 "Beneath the White Mountain" acrylic-on-wood painting

Sarah Young has been drawing since before she can remember. She studied fine arts in painting and drawing at UW, and her background has most extensively been with oils and acrylics. Sarah is fascinated with the two-dimensional design principles of Native northwest coast art, and enjoys exploring their vast possibilities for representing movement in nature.

Sarah created "Beneath the White Mountain" at the urging of the Bicycle Alliance, melding her passion for painting with her enthusiasm for bicycling. As you can see, the result is striking! This 18" x 24" acrylic-on-wood painting is just the right size to enhance that special corner of your home!

314 Guided Bike Tour of Seattle for 6 Led by Sally Bagshaw

Seattle Cycling Tours is pleased to offer a cycling tour of... gasp.. Seattle. You and five other people will stop by our Seattle Cycling Tours shop located in downtown Seattle, where we will supply bikes and helmets and a tour guide to tour urban Seattle. Urban bike tours are a terrific way to show the city off to visitors, promoting the city as a great place to bike, with great riding, public artwork, fantastic vistas and much more. We throw in a bit of history and social commentary along the way and sometimes engage in impromptu conversations with other bicyclists and pedestrians as we move about the city. To further tantalize those urban bikers out there, we are pleased that City Councilperson Sally Bagshaw has agreed to be our exemplary tour guide for this event. Providing her own special take on the places to see and know about in downtown Seattle.
